01 PROFILE

I am a passionate and outgoing university student at the University of Queensland, specializing in software engineering. With a deep love for music and technology, I thrive on exploring their intersection, aiming to innovate and create meaningful solutions. My dedication extends to fostering a positive impact through leadership, communication, and effective collaboration, ensuring achievement of shared goals.

02 EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

2024 — Present

Team Member at Officeworks

As a Team Member at Officeworks, I provide expert advice to customers on a wide range of primary technology products, ensuring they find the right solutions for their needs. My role also involves assisting customers over the phone, troubleshooting inquiries, and processing orders. Beyond sales, I assist the POS team to maintain smooth checkout operations and fulfilled online orders when those teams needed help.

2024 — Present

Ensemble Technician at St Joseph's College, Gregory Terrace

In my role as an Ensemble Technician at St Joseph's College, Gregory Terrace, I am involved in supporting the young men in my ensembles through learning new pieces, practicing difficult techniques and developing ensemble skills. I also assist other staff in helping manage behaviour and ensuring focus during rehearsals, as well as providing tailored support students with diverse learning needs.

2022 — 2025

Bartender at O'Brien Group Australia

As a Bartender at O'Brien Group Australia, I was responsible for providing high-quality service to patrons, preparing and serving beverages, and maintaining a clean and organized bar area. I actively engaged with customers to ensure a positive and enjoyable experience, while also adhering to responsible service of alcohol (RSA) regulations. Additionally, I contributed to creating a welcoming and vibrant atmosphere for stadium members and corporate guests.

2024 — Present

Musician

As a professional musician, I perform in a variety of ensembles, showcasing versatility and expertise across different musical styles. I engage in learning and mastering new pieces, refining challenging techniques, and exploring new technology. Additionally, I collaborate with fellow musicians to ensure disciplined rehearsals and maintain a focused, productive environment, contributing to the overall success of each performance.

2023 — 2025

Academic Tutor

As an academic tutor, both freelance and contracted, I provided personalized support in various subjects, helping students grasp complex concepts and improve performance. I created tailored lesson plans, conducted one-on-one sessions, and fostered a positive learning environment to achieve their educational goals.

Marketing Communications Coordinator at Argent Australia

In my role as a Marketing Communications Coordinator, I used a variety of digital camera equipment in combination with Adobe Premiere Pro to film, produce, light and edit content for in store displays and other mediums. Additionally I used Adobe Lightroom and Adobe Photoshop to etch and otherwise clean up photos for use in company materials, while adhering strictly to brand guidelines.
