01 PROFILE

I am a passionate and outgoing university student at the University of Queensland, specializing in software engineering. With a deep love for music and technology, I thrive on exploring their intersection, aiming to innovate and create meaningful solutions. My dedication extends to fostering a positive impact through leadership, communication, and effective collaboration, ensuring achievement of shared goals.

02 EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

2024 — 2025

Team Member at Officeworks

As a Team Member at Officeworks, I provided expert advice to customers on a wide range of products, ensuring they found the right solutions for their needs. My role also involved assisting customers over the phone, troubleshooting inquiries, and processing orders. Beyond sales, I assisted the POS team to maintain smooth checkout operations and fulfilled online orders when those teams needed help.

2024 — Present

Ensemble Technician at St Joseph's College, Gregory Terrace

In my role as an Ensemble Technician at St Joseph's College, Gregory Terrace, I am involved in supporting the young men in my ensembles through learning new pieces, practicing difficult techniques and developing ensemble skills. I also assist other staff in helping manage behaviour and ensuring focus during rehearsals, as well as providing tailored support students with diverse learning needs.

2022 — Present

Bartender at O'Brien Group Australia

As a Bartender at O'Brien Group Australia, I am responsible for providing high-quality service to patrons, preparing and serving beverages, and maintaining a clean and organized bar area. I actively engage with customers to ensure a positive and enjoyable experience, while also adhering to responsible service of alcohol (RSA) regulations. Additionally, I contribute to creating a welcoming and vibrant atmosphere for stadium members and corporate guests.

2024 — Present

Musician

As a professional musician, I perform in a variety of ensembles, showcasing versatility and expertise across different musical styles. I engage in learning and mastering new pieces, refining challenging techniques, and exploring new technology. Additionally, I collaborate with fellow musicians to ensure disciplined rehearsals and maintain a focused, productive environment, contributing to the overall success of each performance.

2023 — Present

Academic Tutor

As an academic tutor, both freelance and contracted, I provide personalized support in various subjects, helping students grasp complex concepts and improve performance. I create tailored lesson plans, conduct one-on-one sessions, and foster a positive learning environment to achieve their educational goals.

Marketing Communications Coordinator at Argent Australia

In my role as a Marketing Communications Coordinator, I used a variety of digital camera equipment in combination with Adobe Premiere Pro to film, produce, light and edit content for in store displays and other mediums. Additionally I used Adobe Lightroom and Adobe Photoshop to etch and otherwise clean up photos for use in company materials, while adhering strictly to brand guidelines.
